AMY TAYLOR

Amy Taylor is a super model from Californian who has been in big covers all around the world. We've recently seeing her on the cover of magazines such as Muscle & Fitness Hers, Maxim, FHM, or Playboy, and she already has many more covers lined up this year. Sports Illustrated named her Lovely Lady Of The Day. But she's not a regular model, she's gifted, a commercial pilot, a member of MENSA, received her undergraduate degree in Berkeley, and has an MBA!

What else can anyone ask for in a woman? She also has the sort of curves fantasies are made of (32D-25-35) and she loves taking her semi-automatic out for some marksmanship.

This beauty of Italian and Hungarian ancestry has traveled to 45 countries because travel is her only addiction.

Do you want to know what she finds sexiest in a man? Intelligence. And the biggest turn offs are ignorance and selfishness.

She takes care of her beauty by trying not to fall asleep with makeup on, trying to eat somewhat healthfully, and using top-shelf skin and hair products but most of her looks are just genetic luck. She doesn't focus too much on these looks in daily life. She has always known that they'd fade someday, and that the inside of a person is sexier than any hot shell could ever be.

Now, I'm sure you are wondering where you can find this perfect woman... You can find her enjoying the sunny skies flying, keeping fit at her gym in Los Angeles, or at the beach playing with her dog.

Hello, my name is Fabian Meraz and I'm a Marine Veteran who's now a career model from Los Angeles. I come from a Cattle ranch in Durango Mexico and moved to Chicago by myself. I joined the Marines and served a tour in Afghanistan and was honorably discharged. To my surprise I was discovered by a talented photographer that snowballed into the career I have today. My tattoos is by one artist. Andrew Sussman and he's the only person to ever work on me for the last 14 years. He's also my best friend and good mentor. All my ink is by Eternal Inks who me and my artist are sponsored. Thank you.

Achievements: I really never had any goals except to just be creative and a good person. Somehow the energy I give off has attracted me to talented and creative artist which we were able to produce our best work to date. I've always been unlucky in my love life due to the chaos of this modeling industry and not having a set schedule to go and spend time with my significant other. But I'm fine with the single life. I know the right person will come to my life when the time is right.

My name is Federica. I'm 25, I was born in Italy but now I live in Germany with my boyfriend. My family is in Italy. I've studied in a school for photography, but now I work like a barista.

Achievements: Tell us about their experience : My dream is to be an ink model. Before I lived in Milano but I left Italy because I don't like the people there. I came to Germany far from my family after 1 month that I knew my boyfriend. Before I hated my body and I never thought about doing the ink model but now that's what I want because thanks to my boyfriend who is also my tattoo artist I'm more sure of myself.

Hello Everyone Jessica Johnson here. A little bit about me, I'm a new freelance glamour, swimsuit and lingerie model based out of Portland, Oregon. I'm a sweet, outgoing, vibrant, thriving, friendly 30 year old woman. I stand a petite, 5'5", weighing 120 lbs, 34D-24-27 physique with long dark brown all natural curly hair. I'm a gorgeous, rare mix of Japanese and Trinidadian. I grew up in Lawrenceville, Georgia and moved quite often as a child because of my father being in the army. My parents are divorced so therefore I don't know much about my mother who is Japanese. I grew with my dad and little brother. Childhood for the most part was ok until I moved to Portland, Oregon. I have been bullied in school so I obtained my GED and was kind of going through a hard time in my life so that's how I really got into modeling. I made an account on model mayhem and been booking shoots ever since than.

Achievements: Model mayhem has helped me network with other local photographers in the Portland metro area. I have participated in Hot Import nights, was a ring girl, and been published in the NW creative arts.

I would love to be published in other magazines such as Maxim, Swimsuit Sports Illustrated, penthouse, and maybe even for Playboy.

I am a mother to three amazing boys and one in which has just been recently with cerebral palsy so that's why I mentioned I have been modeling off and on because I had to take time to see what's wrong with one of the twins.

Due to the fact that I was bullied in middle and high-school, modeling has really helped me build my confidence as I was always made fun of for having a flat face or tight asian eyes. I have always love modeling because of the Victoria's Secret Fashion show watching all the beautiful girls walk up and down the runway so that's how I got interested in the industry. see what's with one
