I reside in Rosenberg, Tx. I have always been apart of a musical family ranging from pianists, percussionists and so much more. My family is really huge and is one of a kind. I've always felt like we would generate a lot of ratings if we were ever to have our own reality tv show. I'm going to be graduating from B.F. Terry High School this year. Hopefully, we can walk the stage if COVID-19 permits. I'm excited for the future ultimately and I see success as something that is in the near future.

Achievements: My goal is to use my love of music to inspire others who have lost their inspiration and may feel like they have no purpose. I have always wanted to use my gift of music to be a vessel for those under me. I will continue to try to spread my love and light through the melodies that God sends me. My biggest challenge is believing in myself. I come off as confident to most people but sometimes I need a boost from others. I really want to work on being my own personal booster and not relying on the validation of others.

My name is Chyna Mitchell. I live in tamarac,Florida. I'm a model by a model agency. I have had experience having photoshoots from different photographers and modeled for a few of their websites and I have been in several magazines. I like to sing, dance, read and go shopping in my spare time.

I love working With Johnny, he's a genuine connoisseur of great music with so much talent, it's such a pleasure to call him my friend. We've worked together on other albums but this one, to have the freedom to dig deep and experiment with my own unique recording techniques and then to have Johnny put his final touches on it was a real treat!" Alyssa and I wrote the title track "Dream with me". We loved the song when it was finished. We felt it was a great title for the Album. The video has a connection to the coronavirus.

Tracks from Leaving Eden albums will be featured in Massimiliano Cerchi's movies: Painkiller, Mayday, Lockdown and Penthouse starring Michael Pare (The Philadelphia Experiment, Eddie and the Cruisers). And Bloodthirst.

"We are excited about this new album also, because the entire album and lots of tunes from our previous albums will also be featured in a new fake reality comedy movie titled "The Nitwit"

Watch the teaser trailer For THE NITWIT MOVIE

<https://m.youtube.com/watch?feature=youtu.be&v=g6ulkgZvVJI>

Website: <https://thenitwitmovie.com>

Originally I had written The Nitwit movie script loosely based on real life events with the intention of having Leaving Eden's music throughout the movie and procuring other pros to make the movie. Where Leaving Eden has been involved with having our music placed in different movies and TV series this simply made sense. While in Iowa after wrapping up on a shoot I sat down with Nitwit Movie Producer, Ray Van Blarcom and Actor, Matt Moody over a scotch and threw the script down on the table. They started reading it, thought it was hilarious so we decided let's make the movie. For me being the director of several music videos it was a very simple transition to direct The Nitwit Movie. Finally, I was intrigued by Matt Moody's experience not only in production but as an actor. Ironically Matt fit the leading role as The Nitwit perfectly. He then brought in Jordan Smith as his costar and Nitwit Movie Producer, Fran Huges, the rest is history. We expect the movie to be released in 2020 by SGL Entertainment. <https://leavingeden.com>

There you will find everything you need to know about Leaving Eden. We were booked through November but then the stay at home order came down. We wish everyone peace and safety through this very turbulent time on planet earth
