I am the youngest of 5. I've always dreamed about becoming and entertainer. I was given my first opportunity as a backup dancer for a local celebrity in the late 80's. In 2001, I was given the opportunity to choreograph THE B.V.I Miss World Pageant. I continued success in dance and moved on to singing in front of thousands. I am now focused on making a name for myself in T.V/FILM. I am currently filming season 2 of "50 cent new ABC show as a latin inmate. I am also filming a T.V series which I will star in called "Rico's Law". I have played numerous characters (Inmate, FBI Agent, Doctor etc in popular shows. Below I have provided my link to IMDb to show my credits.

My name is Christen (Chris-10) and I'm 16 years old. I use to do dance choreography when I was about 8 or 9 until I moved cities so I don't remember much about it. My goals in life is to model, dance, and become an successful actor I have already been to acting auditions and got approved but due to corona it made it a little challenging to complete my goal. A challenge for me is relearning how to do dance choreography all over again since it's been some years. Hopefully this will give me another chance at relearning something I once knew.

Nyameko Bandit Nemo Ngwadla is a South African upcoming recording artist currently based in the city of Johannesburg. Bandit Nemo started recording music when he was in primary school on a laptop his parents bought him. It all started as a hobby but the music bug caught him and he did a lot of school talent shows and community talent showcases. After finishing his grade 12 in 2015 Bandit Nemo moved to Jo'burg where he studied sound engineering because it was the closest thing to the music dream he had and of course while studying he was recording music and putting it out. Bandit Nemo's biggest highlight would be when he performed at the same event where one of his favourite artist Reason was performing and that was in 2019. One of the biggest challenges Bandit Nemo claims to have in his journey is getting exposure through marketing and also the fact that he has to balance the music with school is a huge challenge for him because staying in school and getting good grades is his ticket to stay in Johannesburg and not that the dream would die if his not in Johannesburg but that's were better opportunity's are if you doing music. Bandit Nemo's goals are to make and share his music and hopefully make a living out of it and just like any other rapper out there he wants to buy his mother a beautiful house somewhere in the hills. Bandit Nemo recently released his hot single titled "Everything thing alright" featuring artist's Kowbey Earlay and Chef Lwazi and its out on websites "sliqour on life, Audiomac and soundcloud"

Jax Long is a 23-year-old woman filled with passion and who is extremely high energy. She has always been interested in music, joining every chorus and auditioning for every music group she could, while taking voice lessons and balancing the rest of her day to day activities. She released a single in 2019 based on a song she produced herself the year prior, and has been working diligently to promote it around the area performing at clubs such as Phantom Lounge. The song is an ode to woman's empowerment, dancing around her growth and struggles in the past. The artist has some other music in the works but as a perfectionist, wants it to be just right before releasing another piece even though she wants to

As well as taking care of her friends and family and inspiring them to follow their dreams. While music is her passion, she has interest in everything related to art. As a professional ballroom dance instructor, her schedule isn't very flexible, but she still finds time to explore things like modeling, and has modeled for local companies like Shopaholik. Aside from modeling she loves to paint, read, and draw. Mangas are her guilty pleasure, Parasite her favorite series, but she typically enjoys reading nonfiction novels. She's no stranger to the gaming
