Yungjoe whose real name is Mhlonishwa Dladla from a place called Magubheleni in the Shiselweni Region. Born 15 August 1999. I started doing music back in 2015 with one of my friend (Rick Nator) under Kulprit as our producer at that time, then as time went by we met (PmD, N.Taurus. Ghecko, D K switch, Legit, MK plus Enveer).

As am still an upcoming artist I haven't achieved that much, but working with one of the best producer in Swaziland (Mr Kangaroo) was one of my biggest achievement. And this year I got the opportunity to work with Shatter (female producer from Lesotho) just brightened my lane, not forgetting my big bro Fleshy G (mamber of Life Time Music Empire). I felt so blessed and it was great working with them, I have learned a lot from them. My Goal is to heal so many soul through my music, speak life & motivate other people who might be afraid to expose their dreams. They say, "its not a pearl until its off its shell".

One of the challenges I have encountered is lack of awareness via a performance platform. We all know that as an artist we need to entertain our audience live but we hardly get to get the opportunity to host more shows, so we can have fun with those people who enjoy our music.

Nyameko-Ngwadla Nyameko Bandit Nemo Ngwadla is a South African upcoming recording artist currently based in the city of Johannesburg. Bandit Nemo started recording music when he was in primary school on a laptop his parents bought him. It all started as a hobby but the music bug caught him and he did alot of school talent shows and community talent showcases. After finishing his grade 12 in 2015 Bandit Nemo moved to Jo'burg where he studied sound engineering because it was the closest thing to the music dream he had and ofcause while studying he was recording music and putting it out. Bandit Nemo's biggest highlight would be when he performed at the same event where one of his favourite artist Reason was performing and that was in 2019. One of the biggest challenges Bandit Nemo claims to have in his journey is getting exposure through marketing and also the fact that he has to balance the music with school is a huge challenge for him because staying in school and getting good grades is his ticket to stay in Johannesburg and not that the dream would die if his not in Johannesburg but that's were better opportunity's are if you doing music. Bandit Nemo's goals are to make and share his music and hopefully make a living out of it and just like any other rapper out there he wants to buy his mother a beautiful house somewhere in the hills. Bandit Nemo recently released his hot single titled "Everything thing alright" featuring artist's Kowbey Earlay and Chef Lwazi and its out on websites "sliqour on life, Audiomac and soundcloud"

I got a body full of evil and good. I got demonic tattoos cause I like the art. Most of my tattoos were freehand while I was in prison. When I look at my tattoos it reminds me of prison a place where I don't want to see ever again. I still need some more tattoos to finish my body but in time it will be done. I did 6 years in prison and
